

By Train from Haneda Airport

The stations closest to the conference venue are the Iidabashi stations (Iidabashi Station on the Chuo-Sobu Line (Local Service), and Iidabashi stations on the subway lines). Here we explain one of the easiest routes to get to Iidabashi Station on the Chuo-Sobu Line (3 on the map):

Haneda Airport International Building

↓ Tokyo Monorail* (13-21 min., 490 yen)

Hamamatsucho

↓ JR† Yamanote Line (9-10 min.)

Akihabara

↓ JR Chuo-Sobu Line (6-7 min.)

Iidabashi

(170 yen)

* Please don't confuse Tokyo Monorail with another company, "Keikyu (Keihin Kyuko)".

† JR means JR East (East Japan Railway Company).

Some trains might have slightly different front faces, but all Yamanote Line trains have green lines and all Chuo-Sobu Line trains have yellow lines.
